

Department of Veterans Affairs

period following the anniversary date of appointment. The Veterans Services Officer shall furnish appropriate notice to the beneficiary, either directly or through the fiduciary, that a commission is payable.

(c) Persons who may be excluded. Commissions may not be authorized to dependents of the beneficiary or other close relatives acting in a fiduciary capacity on behalf of the beneficiary, except under extraordinary circumstances.

(Authority: 38 U.S.C. 5502; Pub. L. 98-223)

§ 13.69 Limitation of beneficiaries to individual fiduciary.

For purposes of payment of Department of Veterans Affairs benefits, the number of beneficiaries for whom an individual fiduciary may act will be limited to the number the fiduciary may be reasonably expected to properly serve. When, in the judgment of the Veterans Services Officer, a fiduciary has been appointed or is seeking appointment in a case in excess of that number, the Veterans Services Officer will initiate action to obtain a suitable substitute fiduciary.

§ 13.70 Apportionment of benefits to dependents.

(a) Incompetent veterans being furnished hospital treatment, institutional or domiciliary care by United States or political subdivision thereof. (1) When compensation, pension or emergency officers' retirement pay is payable in behalf of a veteran who is incompetent or under other legal disability by court action, the Veterans Services Officer may recommend such apportionment to or in behalf of the veteran's spouse, child or dependent parent as may be necessary to provide for their needs.

(2) When payment of compensation, pension or emergency officers' retirement pay, in behalf of a veteran rated incompetent by the Department of Veterans Affairs by reason of mental illness has no spouse or child and is being furnished hospital treatment, institutional or domiciliary care by the United States or a political subdivision thereof, has been stopped because his or her estate equals or exceeds $1,500, the Veterans Services Officer may recommend the payment of so much of the benefit otherwise payable as is necessary to provide for the needs of dependent parent or parents. (See §§ 13.74(b) and 13.108(b).)

(b) Dependent parents. When the compensation of a veteran paid to his or her fiduciary includes an additional amount for a dependent parent or parents and the fiduciary neglects or refuses to make an equivalent contribution for their support, the Veterans Services Officer may recommend the apportionment to the parent or parents of the additional amount.

(c) Payments withheld because of fiduciary's failure to properly administer veteran's estate. When payments of compensation, pension or emergency officers' retirement pay in behalf of a veteran have been stopped because of the fiduciary's failure or inability to properly account or otherwise administer the estate, the Veterans Services Officer may recommend the apportionment to the veteran's spouse, child or dependent parent of any benefit not paid under an institutional award or to a custodian-in-fact.

§ 13.71 Payment of cost of veteran's maintenance in institution.

(a) By institutional award. (1) The payment of part of compensation, pension or emergency officers' retirement pay for the cost of a veteran's hospital treatment, institutional or domiciliary care in an institution operated by a political subdivision of the United States may be authorized as provided in paragraph (a)(2) of this section when:

(i) The veteran is rated incompetent by the Department of Veterans Affairs.

(ii) It has been determined the veteran is legally liable for the cost of his or her maintenance, and

(iii) The institution's representative has asserted or probably will assert a claim for full maintenance costs.

(2) Subject to these conditions and the further condition that the responsible official of the institution or political subdivision will agree not to assert against Department of Veterans Affairs
